We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

PERCALES.

About twenty-five patterns marked from 12c. to 50c. All light colors cool and for cool-looking summer wear. The calendar points to rapidly advancing spring, and cotton sewing cannot have too early a completion. Fashion does not dictate to retailers with the same reluctance with which she seasons high-priced silks. Last year's Percales are as pretty as this season's, but storage has marred their freshness, hence the sacrifice. Our later 12c. Percales are no better in any way except their freshness, but water will soon cause every tatter of these cottons.

PILLOW CASES.

Ready-made helplessness. Masses of carefully selected quality, sewing nearly done. Both fabric and stitching in these will prove their worthiness by their wear. Prices at less than the cost of the raw material. Pillow Cases 36" x 45", deep hem, Utica muslin, 7c. each. We wish to emphasize that the 45 years policy of this store has been always to remember prices get customers but quality keeps them.

State Convention of Y. M. C. A. in Annual Session.

PROGRAM OF THE DAY'S DOINGS

The Seventeenth Annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association convened in this city yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church with an average attendance of Delegates and quite a large audience of our townspeople.

The "Opening Service" was conducted by Mr. C. R. Boucher of Covington, Railroad Secretary, and it was of only a half hour's length.

At 3 o'clock the "Quiet Session" was begun, and at that hour the doors were closed and no one admitted until 4 o'clock.

Rev. Frank M. Thomas of Bowling Green had charge of this meeting.

LADIES' RECEPTION.

That the ladies of Maysville never do things in a half-hearted way was strikingly manifest from the delightful reception tendered the visitors and a few local guests in the Sunday-school rooms of the First Presbyterian Church from 6 to 7:30 o'clock last evening.

The tables were tastefully decorated, the tables handsomely trimmed with natural flowers and many hued candles, and a splendid orchestra furnished music. There were covers laid for 112, and every one was there to discuss the menu—

AND THE TABLE.

W. Shall Do Nothing But Eat and Make Good Cheer.

Roasted Oysters. Cold Ham. Baked Biscuits. Crimped Beef. Santa Rosa Chips. Coffee. Pickles. Cheese. Lettuce Salad. Ice Cream. Cake.

State Secretary Roseaver was Master of Ceremonies, and first following the banquet was an exhibition of club swagging by Miss Carrie Hays, who was roundly applauded at the conclusion of the beautiful exercise.

The Rev. F. W. Harrop of the M. E. Church, who is always happy in such efforts, made the visitors a most cordial welcome to our city, expressing the hope that their coming would be of mutual and lasting benefit.

The response on behalf of the visitors was made by Mr. B. B. Wilcox of Frankfort.

The reception closed with several songs, "The United Work in Our State" being treated by Secretary Louis of the Covington Association.

"Our Brotherhood" met a hearty response from Mr. G. N. Bierce, one of Dayton's most prominent manufacturers and a leader in Christian Association work in Ohio.

Mr. J. A. Johnson of Covington was especially happy in his treatment of the last toast, "The Ladies," and it was the very climax of "Good Cheer" following the feast.

After singing the banqueters adjourned to the auditorium house to resume the Association program.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Convention was opened with a beautiful song service, led by Mr. John P. Hillis and at 7:15 the first business of the Convention was the report of the Nominating Committee, and Mr. James A. Curry of Lexington was chosen President, and in a few well-chosen remarks thanked the Convention for this honoring him and proceeded to business by calling for the State Executive Committee's report, which was read by State Secretary Henry E. Roseaver. It was quite lengthy, and showed the committee had not been idle throughout the entire year just closed. They had started in with a deficit of over $600 and still had a deficit of that amount, showing that the State Committee had not gone beyond its means. There were several recommendations by Clover Seed at M. C. Russell & Son's. Everything good to eat at Langdon's. A new Bank will probably be opened at Manchester.

Robert Dixon, fireman at the Ashland Brick Yards, is missing.

The Nicholas County Grand Jury returned nineteen indictments.

Mrs. T. J. Glenn, who has been quite ill at Carlisle several weeks, is improving.

Colonel Albert E. Boone and others will hold a railroad meeting at Carlisle tonight.

The testimony in the Riggs murder case is still being heard in the Circuit Court.

Mr. Clarence L. Mathews's appointment as Postmaster of this city has been confirmed in the Senate.

The soldiers who have been guarding the tollgate near Danville for nearly two months have been withdrawn.

Mr. James Clark of Bourbon county was married at Lexington Wednesday to Mrs. Lillie Grehan Hawkins.

W. N. Watson, Cashier of the Farmer's Bank at Manchester, was quietly married last week to Miss Hattie Mercer.

The office of the Collector of Internal Revenue of the Eighth District will be moved from Richmond to Danville.

The Lexington Gun Club will have a pigeon shoot next Tuesday when 1,500 pigeons and 500 doves will be trapped.

William R. Deen, a native of Bracken county, died a few days ago near Mt. Sterling, aged 45.

Jessie Taylor and Mrs. Frankie Marsh, held by Judge Newell in $1,000 on the charge of infanticide, were dismissed by the Grand Jury.

The public glass windows in the Zwiegart Building and Mr. Holt Richardson's business house broken by the recent fire have been replaced.

Mr. Michie Mulroney, aged 60, and Miss William Morehouse, aged 28, both of Mayfield, have been granted marriage licenses. It will be the groom's second venture.

One thing that attracts many people to Cincinnati to buy goods is the bargain that Cincinnati merchants advertise in the Cincinnati papers. Maybe Mayville merchants might keep some of this trade in Mayville if they would advertise bargains in the Mayville papers. Suppose you try THE LEDGER.
